The Richard B. Russell National School Lunch Act requires the information on this application. You do not have to give the information, but if you do not, we cannot approve your child for free or reduced price meals. You must include the social security number of the adult household member who signs the application. The social security number is not required when you apply on behalf of a foster child or you list a SNAP, Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) Program or Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations (FDPIR) case number for your child or other FDPIR identifier or when you indicate that the adult household member signing the application does not have a social security number. We will use your information to determine if your child is eligible for free or reduced price meals and for administration and enforcement of the Program. If a child is a Head Start participant, the child is automatically eligible to receive free Program meal benefits, subject to submission by Head Start officials of a Head Start statement of income eligibility or income eligibility documentation.

Name and Address of Sponsoring Organization

Dear Day Care Home Provider:

You are participating in the Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP) funded by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and administered by the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services. Please help us comply with the CACFP requirements by completing, signing and returning the attached income statement as soon as possible to your sponsor. This information is necessary so that you may be paid for the meals served to the children in your care. All children in our program receive their meals free of charge, but the income eligibility category determines the amount of funding you will receive. The information you provide on this form will be confidential and will NOT be shared with anyone else without your permission.

Complete the application as follows:

- PROVIDER'S NAME: Insert your name.
- CHILDREN: Complete Part 1B if you are claiming your own children.
- SNAP, TANF/WORK FIRST, FDIPIR: If a household member is currently receiving benefits from any of these programs, provide the program case/identification number as requested. Do not complete Part 2B.
- HOUSEHOLD MEMBERS: Complete Part 2B if you do not complete Part 2A. List household members, the name of the enrolled child(ren), and any other dependent children who live in the household.
- CURRENT INCOME: List the amount of income each person earned last month (BEFORE) deductions for taxes, social security, etc.), the frequency of income, and where it is from, such as wages, retirement, or welfare. If any household member's income last month was higher or lower than usual, list that person's usual average monthly income.
- SIGNATURE: An adult household member must sign the income eligibility application.
- SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER: List the social security number of the adult who signs the income eligibility statement. If that adult does not have a social security number, print "None."

You may submit a program eligibility application any time during the fiscal year. Participants having family members who become unemployed are eligible for free or reduced-price meals during the period of unemployment, provided that the loss of income causes the family's income during the period of unemployment to be within the eligibility standards for those meals.

There is now an affordable health insurance program for children, Health Choice, offered by the State of North Carolina. Health Choice is a comprehensive health plan which covers both hospitalization and outpatient care, including preventive dental, vision, and hearing benefits. This new health plan is intended for children whose parents' income is too high to qualify for Health Check, the state Medicaid program. Applications for Health Choice will be available beginning in October 1998. You may pick up applications from your local health or county social services departments. Get more information on either Health Choice or Health Check by calling this toll free phone number: (800) 367-2229.
